Sport Fitness by Sport Court®

Sport Fitness is an exciting new line of flooring products that can be used for everything from weight lifting to yoga. With a rich finish, and a range of products that provides a safe surface for everything from little kids' feet to the heaviest free weights, Sport Fitness is a welcome improvement upon the institutional 'black rubber mats' used in so many gym settings. Whether you're opening a new fitness facility or creating a private work-out space in your own home, we have a Sport Fitness product perfectly suited to your needs. Our experienced Dealers can first help you determine which products to use where, and then transform your space with a quick and professional installation.

We carry a wide range of colors and thicknesses (each appropriate for a different range of activities), and can create custom colors, layouts, and logos, as well. Sport Fitness is made from durable, high-quality materials, with a 5-year limited warranty. Whatever your fitness flooring needs, we are sure to have the perfect solution for you.
